

WE NOMINATE

The Rev. Susie Thompson Titus, Associate Minister of Mount Pisgah AME Church and one of Princeton's most remarkable humanitarians, who for the past 30 years has quietly lived to the fullest a creed of service that has brought courage and fresh hope to uncounted numbers of the weary, the troubled and the confused.

One of the most beloved of the black community in Princeton, where she has been a member of Mount Pisgah for 37 years, and in Plainsboro where she lives, the Rev. Mrs. Titus, now 62, was the honored guest at a recent dinner at her church, receiving a rare outpouring of devotion that spanned the congregation, the Princeton community, both black and white; the Seminary, the New Brunswick and New Jersey State AME Conferences and the New Jersey Council of Churches. "She has had her hand in just about everything," said one of the speakers.

A woman of magnetic personality and charm, candid in her conversation and approach to people, and with a strong belief in the evangelical expression of the Scriptures, the Rev. Mrs. Tyson has spent her adult life as a servant of the Church. She was born in Cranbury Neck on October 1, 1907, the daughter of Clarence and Bertha Thompson. She was married to Richard Titus, and in 1933 at age 26, joined Mount Pisgah AME Church. Eight years later, licensed as a missionary, she began an unforgettable career of concern.

"Her devotion stands out over everything," in the words of Mount Pisgah's pastor, the Rev. Marion F. Stokes Sr. "If some distress signal is sent up, no matter how poorly she feels, she'll be in there trying. She can't say 'no' to anybody." Her call is a genuine one, reflected in her incredible ability to minister to the sufferings of others during the long, long years of her husband's illness and the toil that has been hers to enable her family of 11 children, ten of whom are still living, to survive during their formative years.

She began her first charge, the Mount Zion AME Church in Little Rocky Hill, in 1911, serving as its pastor for 14 years. During this time, she received, in 1952, her First Ordination as a minister and five years later, and by then a widow, her Second Ordination, becoming one of the very few women ministers in the AME denomination who have the distinction of serving as a full pastor. She was called in 1958 to minister to the Bethel AME Church in Metuchen, where she served with distinction for eight years. Next, she was pastor of Mount Zion AME Church in Skillman, until overtaken by illness, she resigned after two years. In April of 1968 she felt well enough to accept the Rev. Mr. Stokes' offer as associate minister at Mount Pisgah.

Through these years, the Rev. Mrs. Titus had — and still has — a special ministry to the migrant workers in the Cranbury-Plainsboro area, backed by the New Jersey Council of Churches. "The people call on her all hours of the night," says Mr. Stokes. "Sometimes even for counseling over the telephone." For many, many years a Marshall at the AME national conventions, she is as highly regarded by the church leaders as she is by the Mount Pisgah congregation, whose Rachael Couover Missionary Society worked tirelessly to arrange the dinner in her honor.

For her infectious courage and faith that have strengthened all who have turned to her, for her forthright and tender counseling; and for her deep piety that has caused countless individuals to say, "Pray for me," "Pray for my children," she is 'TOWN TOPICS' nominee as

POLICE GET SPACE

And New Equipment.
Princeton Township's taxpayers will move over so to speak, to make more room for the police.

On March 1, the Township's tax office will move into new space ($3,150 a year) in the Opinion Research Corporation building on North Harrison Street. Taxpayers will enter the 100 square foot of basement space by the rear door.

Township police will then spread out luxuriously into the rooms now occupied in Township Hall by the tax office. This will give the 26-man force about twice as much space, plus a spot right up front next to Township Hall's front door.

The move is a direct result of the $4700 police survey made last summer by Executive Management Service, Inc. Township Committee has been studying the Service's report since September, and revealed its recommendations at a press conference this week.

Two Recommendations. Providing more office space was one of the major recommendations made by Thomas Brennan, EMS staff member who did the survey.

A second key recommendation was a tightening of the administrative line. The police department and its Chief of Police, James Campbell, will be responsible to the Township Administrator, Joseph R. Nini.

The Administrator, in turn, will report to Township Committee through the Committee man who holds the Police Commissioner portfolio. This is now William L. Wilson.

In the past, all these relationships have been very broadly defined. There is no actual Township ordinance creating the post of Police Commissioner, for example, and his responsibilities have been very general, explained Mayor John D. Wallace, Jr.

The lines of a police chief's legal responsibility run to the office of the Mercer County Prosecutor, the mayor added. He told reporters that Mr. Nini's additional burden will be offset by re-aligning staff functions.

But that extra space . . .

To put in it, the police force will get a new communications center including a police console incorporating the present "hot" lines and expanded telephone service, which Chief Campbell said he has been discussing with the telephone company (the police now have only two telephone lines).

Also, Chief Campbell will ask the Federal Communications Commission for a second radio channel.

"We're now on Municipal Services," the chief explained, "and we want one strictly

Police Pay Increased

A new police pay scale has been adopted by the West Windsor Township Committee.

The new salary ranges — retroactive to January 1, 1970 — will pay patrolmen $8,000 to $11,000; sergeants $10,700 to $11,500 and Chief Francis Maguire, $13,000 to $15,500. At the same meeting, Ptl. Frank Cox, a former Princeton Township patrolman, was promoted to sergeant. Chief Maguire is a former lieutenant in the Borough police force.

In comparison, salaries for Princeton Township police are $5 to $6,650 for patrolmen, or $1,350 less than the top for a West Windsor patrolman; $10,475 for sergeant; $11,575 for lieutenant; and $13,350 for Chief James B. Campbell Jr. Borough police salaries are comparable to those of the Township.

for police. The state police have to OK our application first."

The Township plans to hire a secretary to relieve detectives from typing and other clerical activities.

"As a sergeant, let's say ten minutes before he's due to go off duty and he's got an accident report he's scribbled and somebody's using the typewriter, and . . ."

"And typists they are NOT!" grumbled Mayor Wallace, referring to police officers.

A photography lab is also on the list. And the additional space will make room for several of the report's recommendations, like a squad bureau and department meetings, daily activity reports, daily bulletin, and so on.

Also, the department will have a full-time traffic safety officer instead of the present part-time one, and a new patrolman.

How Much Cost is estimated at $18,000, exclusive of rent paid to ORC. About half would be "nuts and bolts," Mr. Wilson said. This includes $15,000 for the communications console, $5,000 for the secretary, $8,000 for the new patrolman, $8,000 raise for the man who becomes traffic safety, full-time; $2,000 for the photography lab; $1,000 for expanded radio; $1,000 for an additional squad car and $2,000 a year for something new annual physical examinations for the ones.

"We're looking into possible Federal money for traffic control," Mr. Wilson said, "but it's only one-shot money for one year. The amounts of money available to us from Federal sources are very small."

He added that additional equipment would not be redundant if Borough and Township should consolidate. "But the Township is no longer waiting to see whether consolidation might come," he said.

Mr. Wilson, who prepared a ten-page summary of the report, said that all its recommendations had Chief Campbell's approval, except a few like standardizing home alarm systems.

Other recommendations include tightened disciplinary measures; tightened adherence to supervisory procedures; formalized roll call and inspection; a tighter moon lighting policy and establishment of a formal grievance procedure.

The report also asked greater emphasis on prevention and counseling in juvenile cases, rather than emphasis on enforcement.

"Aside from recommendations like 'improving community relations' or 'strengthening morale,' which we'll be working on all the time, we hope to accomplish these things—De physical changes within 1970," Mr. Wilson declared.

BUDGET OUT

Taxes? Up. On a $30,000 house, a Township taxpayer would pay $29 more in taxes and a Borough householder $2 more as a result of the proposed Princeton Regional Schools' budget. A budget brochure will be mailed this week to taxpayers. (See also pages 16 and 17 of TOWN TOPICS.) Public hearing on the $7 million budget will be held next Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of Princeton High School. Voting on the budget—and on educational for school board—is Tuesday, February 3.

The Borough's estimated tax rate for schools will be $3.21 for each $100 of assessed valuation on a house. That's a rise of 5%. The Township's rate is $4.166 for each $100 of assessed valuation, an increase of 3%.

The Township has 71% of the system's pupils, and the Borough 28%. Current expenses and capital outlay are, by law, apportioned between the two communities on the basis of enrollment. Debt service ($198,700) is apportioned on the basis of equalized valuation.

Most of the budget's increase is earmarked for salaries, but these are still under negotiation. When a settlement has been reached, the school board will send to each taxpayer a detailed break-down of the budget.

CENTER LOSER

Township Wins. Any plans for an expansion of Hamberg's or for a new A & P store must be subject to the Township's site plan review board. That was the ruling Friday from Judge Frank J. Kingfield of Superior Court. He also ruled that the site plan review board is legal.

Attorney for George Warnecke, owner of the site, told the court that Mr. Warnecke spent $13,000 in 1967 getting ready for the two projects. The money was spent before the first of Mr. Warnecke's building permits lapsed, but it wasn't enough of an investment to free Mr. Warnecke from compliance with the Township's site plan review.

Judge Kingfield had said that if Mr. Warnecke's expenses were heavy enough, he might be entitled to a second building permit without site plan review.

TOPICS Of The Town

REGIONAL SEWER?

First Step Taken. Over the anguished protests of one Councilman, the Borough took its first step Tuesday night toward possible participation in a regional sewer.

By a 4-2 vote, Council passed the resolution allowing the Stony Brook Regional Sewerage Group to proceed with engineering plans for the proposed regional project, and to apply for state aid.

The Borough is the second of the Group's seven constituent municipalities to take this action. Hopewell Township was the first. Four out of the seven must pass the resolution before the Group can seek state aid. Mayor Robert Cawley said the Township and Hopewell Borough might act next Monday.

The unhappy Councilman was Charles Cornforth, who pleaded with Council to wait for more detailed figures on what it might cost if Borough and Township split off from the Group and solved Princeton's community's sewer problems alone.

Allan Carrick joined him in the "no" vote, but specified that he wanted to delay for one month only.

Surprise, Council's action was unexpected. Only a few hours before, Mayor Robert Cawley had told reporters at his press conference that Council would hold off on action until those cost details were presented by Metcalf and Eddy, the sewer consultants, who made the regional sewer report.

But as Council opened Tuesday night, Mayor Cawley said "I am convinced there are penalties we and the whole Regional Sewerage Group will pay if we delay," and he quoted construction cost increases of 12-14% a year.

"Besides," he warned, "there's line forming at the State for that money." The Group hopes the state will contribute 60% of costs.

But Mr. Cornforth was not convinced. He said that, with 60% state aid and bonds at 5% interest (both were quoted in the report), Borough and Township together would have a "payback" of $13,000,000. He defined "payback" as interest-plus principal.

If the interest were 7%, he said, the payback would be $18 million. If the state offered only 30% Borough and Township would pay back $23 million at 5% or $32 million at 7%.

"We can't afford to commit ourselves tonight, without finding alternatives," he stated.

Metcalf and Eddy estimated that costs in 1972 to the Borough would be $233,000 under participation in a Regional sewer, and $223,000, if the Borough goes it alone. Mr. Cornforth wants a breakdown of those figures.

"Pure dollars, however, won't be the determining factor in the end, and shouldn't be," he added.

State Wants Regional Plant. Alfred Sorenson, engineer and former Councilman, who is Borough representative on the Stony Brook Regional Sewerage Group, reminded Council that it was Princeton's Joint Sewer Operating Committee that proposed the idea of a regional sewer to surrounding communities in the first place.

"The state has been very lenient with us," he warned. "Our plant and trunk line have been overloaded for years. The state is lenient because they want to boost us to get this Regional thing going. Jaden Cage and the new Math building will overload our trunk lines even more. Besides, state sanitary specifications get tougher all the time."

He told Council that a small treatment plant, which Borough and Township might build themselves, to replace the present ancient one, would need all the "ingredients" of a larger Regional plan, so that no money could be saved that way.

Borough Engineer Donald Harney said a new plant couldn't be built to serve the community for less than $1 million.

Questions of rate remain to be solved. If rate were based on flow, Mr. Sorenson pointed out, municipalities now less developed, could be charged a minimum to equalize the financial burden.

He added that South Brunswick's population density (Kenilworth Park is in that town ship) would bring in a nice $50,000 a year by 1983.

Council's action does not finally commit the Borough, it was emphasized: The Borough can still back out when the engineering details are submitted. Actual creation of a sewer "Authority" would come later, Councilman James Andrews pointed out.

Mayor Caskey announced the appointment of Robert Harvey, Balcraft Drive, as assistant to the sanitary engineer, Donald Harney.

The mayor also announced that Council's agenda meetings will now be held on the Thursday before each Council meeting at 8 p.m. Meetings are open to the public, he said.

PETROCELLI WITHDRAWN
From School Board, Orlando Petrocelli has decided he won't run after all for the Township's two year seat on the Princeton Regional School Board.

His name will still be on the ballot, however, because he made his decision after the deadline for withdrawing. He stated this week that he is asking people not to vote for him.

"I am withdrawing in favor of all the fine and eminently qualified candidates that are running," he said. "I have lentized to them all and I find

Economy Plan

"Wait" is right — have you heard the long-range forecast? The traditional January thaw is to be replaced by weeks of colder weather than usual, accompanied by more precipitation than usual, in the form of you know what.

For the immediate future, temperatures will be below normal, but no snow. Generally clear skies are expected through the week-end.

that Mr. Mager and Mr. Cruickshank cover the same areas I would cover myself, so I will support these two." Daniel Mager is running for the three year seat, and Philip Cruickshank for the two year seat.

Mr. Petrocelli added, "I would also vote for the school budget. It is the responsibility of the board to prepare it and you shouldn't penalize the town by voting against it."

Mr. Petrocelli is the second candidate to pull back from the two-year contest. Last week, Dr. Warren E. Dodson announced his withdrawal, but he withdrew inside the deadline, so his name will not appear on the ballot.

Five people originally started in the race for the single Township two-year seat. Broadly speaking, Dr. Cruickshank, Dr. Dodson and Mr. Petrocelli are critical of the school administration while Barnett Sams and Mrs. Loren Johnston support the administration.

With Dr. Dodson and Mr. Petrocelli gone, Dr. Cruickshank has a clear, unopposed track. But Dr. Sams and Mrs. Johnston have to share the pro-administration vote.

Dr. Dodson entered the race early because, he said, there was no candidate at the time who represented his views. Last week, he explained that he was pulling out because candidates filed who did represent his views.

Concert to Honor Martin Luther King

William Cook

News Of The THEATRES

"Because Dr. King's life was devoted not to sell, but to his people, because he resurrected an understanding and interest in Black America's literary and musical heritage, any tribute to him should be a tribute to that culture, that experience of life."

With these words, the members of Princeton High School's Black Students Union announce the presentation this Sunday evening of their first Martin Luther King Memorial Concert.

The concert will be given in Princeton High's auditorium at 8:15 p.m. Admission is $1 and tickets will be available at the door. The public is invited to attend.

Frances Gooding will sing a group of songs and William Cook will present readings from black literature.

Miss Gooding, who is the wife of Donald Evans of the PBS Faculty, has included in her program "Wade in de Water," "Inherit the Wind," "Come and go with Me," "Oh, Free-dom," and "No More Slavery Chain," among others. She will also sing songs by Duke Ellington and W. H. Handy.

Miss Gooding received her musical training at the Philadelphia Conservatory of Music, and at Temple University. She has appeared in opera and on both radio and television. She has received citations from the Philadelphia Board of Education, Drexel Institute and the University of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Cook is acting head of the English Department at Princeton High School. He has acted in Trenton's Theatre in the Park, Rider College's Resident Professional Company and the Bucks County Playhouse Resident Company. He also lectures extensively throughout the state.

Mr. Cook and Mrs. Gooding began performing together last spring, appearing at Cherry Hill College and filling a variety of engagements in Pennsylvania.

IT'S NEW To Us

MORE LEISURE TIME
And Hobby-Industry
We're being told by the crystal ball gazers that the 1970's will be (among other things)
the era when many more hob-byists turn to cottage industry — or moonlighting at home.

Not all of us, it's true, although we will all share the grossly increased leisure time that is apparently coming our way, the Monday Holiday Law and earlier retirement.

For many of us, however,
whether our hobby is tennis,
or cooking or decoupage, changes are that in the Seventies we'll find more time to indulge in it and quite likely find a market. This latter point is the key to the 70's hobby picture — an up-dating of the cottage industry of the days before the Industrial Revolution.

In the past few years, we've noticed in Princeton evidence of this growing trend. You may have seen the beautiful small boxes and trays with marvelous old pictures and trim on them — this is the art of decoupage that is experiencing a rebirth of interest. Princeton Decorating Shop on Palmer Square has some outstanding examples made by a woman working at home.

Wildflower Placemats. Or,
you've seen the attractive placemats at Princeton Gift with wild flowers pressed between two layers of clear plastic — made by a resident of this area. And at Applegate's artificial flower shop on the Square, you may have seen

among the admirers of the exquisite Victorian arrangements of tiny dried flowers displayed in minute pewter and ceramic containers.
These, too, were made at home
by a skillful woman.

There's a Hightstown woman who embroders snocked dresses for a Princeton children's shop, and a clergyman's wife who supplied Bon Bon Appetit with high quality frozen canapés.

And a college girl who parlayed her interest in leather into the small shop she calls
"Bags End," over on Olden Street. There are weavers who from time to time take on an assignment, such as lunchbox sets.

At the Now n Then Shop in Cransbury, beautifully made articles ranging from dolls to objects d'art are displayed for sale — most of them made by retired persons.

The Knitting Shop on Tulane Street not long ago sold a latch-hooked rug rug for a woman who decided after she'd finished it that it wasn't exactly what she wanted for her house. Another woman lover
it and bought it.

Gallery 100 plans to open a boutique this spring — devoted largely to stitchery. It also wants to pay more attention to the works of the members of the Princeton Art Association.

The Lexington Gallery exhibits and sells only the work of artists and craftsmen of the central New Jersey area,
and does so with much enthusiasm.

Many Varied Hobbies. Hob-byists are speaking to clubs on such subjects as photography, stained glass, antiques, stamp, gardening and everything else, some for fees ranging from $10 up. Informal clubs are forming around such leisure time interests as rocketry, afgans, photography, and ham radio.

If your interests lie in the decorative arts, such as needles, stained glass, ceramics, mosaics, wood work or wood carving, enameling, rug making, or if your husband likes to make jigsaw puzzles and birdhouses, there is a market for these things if you follow the advice given us by a Princeton shopkeeper:

1) The work must be of a highly professional quality, as you are competing with the New York-Philadelphia market.

2) It must be either unusual, even unique, or meet an unmet need.

3) You cannot, often, make what you want to make and expect to find a buyer for it.
Rather, you must know the market, its fads, its restless seeking for the useful and unusual, and if possible be in the vanguard.

4) And last, you must be prepared for the fact that the prices paid for handwork and art are comparatively low.

The Princeton community offers an introduction into many crafts and decorative arts, whether you are seeking a pleasant activity for leisure time or a bit of moonlighting at home.

Over at Creative Crafts at 7 Spring Street, Mrs. Maryanne Caruso holds workshops that explore a variety of ar-tistics. You can buy glass in globes or sheets and make jewelry, stained glass objects and whatever else your fancy wants to try in that medium.

Or resin to mold as you wish, or decoupage, beads, borders, even mother of pearl in flakes and sheets. You can try your hand at candlemaking, montage, plastic flowers, paper designs and many other things.

Art Classes Offered. The Princeton Art Association is offering classes in the very basics of ceramics on Saturday mornings to the young people of junior and senior high school age. It holds an adults' graphics workshop on Monday evenings, introducing beginners to print making. There's also a Tuesday morning class in silk screen techniques, and an afternoon group on Wednesdays exploring. Continued on Page 10

TWO ON VIEW
At Two Galleries, Jane Rose Spenser's show of oils and watercolors at the Present Day Club through January is excellent. Her oil paintings fall into two distinct styles. Some oils reflect the influence of action painting and abstract expressionism, others are quite different and fall into the hard-edge school.

One of the characteristics of abstract expressionism is that the body movement of the artist left behind the brush stroke must be visible. The painting of Princeton's two galleries is a sample of this type of strong and active brush work.

Aside from the action aspect of the painting, Mrs. Spenser has involved herself with many other problems of the painter. In working through oils and watercolors she has found some fine and rather complex paintings. Surface tension created by small voids appears to give broad, simple areas and the manipulation of color to bring movement back and forth. The artist has added another important dimension to her painting.

The hard-edge painting, deal with a most limited problem, but at the moment of flat facies in space. "Gyres" with its weaving undulating shapes overlapping one another is a good example of this. Color plays a less important role in these paintings and the watercolor canvases are the most successful.

To this observer, the first of the two must be the latter.

Princeton's most life of color is vibrant and unusual. In these there is a break in the picture plane, large areas of the white of the paper exposed to organic shapes.

The "padding" quality that watercolors can have is utilized for textural needs, and again, created by transparent washes just used as a "padding" device. "Tinted" is a good example of the same. The artist that Jane Rose Spenser has given to the medium of watercolor.

French artist, Jean Arnes, is having his first showing in this country at Kline's Gallery on Palmer Square. He has many shows in his own country. His work borders on German expressionism and is particularly interesting from this standpoint. We do not often see this style of painting in Princeton.

German expressionism emerged in the first decade of the 20th century. In it the artist seeks not the objective reality of the world but the subjective reality of his feelings.

Distortion, special use of color, the skills of lying, and the chair, and a heavy, almost crude manner to join him in it. The style are the main devices in to Memphis. Together with Crose, they set out for Ten

The expressionist's intent is to force an emotional and personal reaction to his work. Jean Frene's work does this. In "Bassie Quarry" the flow of ton cascading diagonally across the canvas brings to mind the chaos of humanity flashing a cross the world scene. And in "Green Landscape" one feels the artist's anxiety over man's role in combating the machine of destruction. The tree forms in fact appear to be menacing tanks charging the viewer. Jean Frene's message is not new, but it is as says timely.

The Belkovers (now playing) the same genre in Jefferson, Mass. In 1960, when the word "recovery" was slang for third and can artist.

The Belkovers are two funny men, one white (Steve McQueen) and one black (Rupert Croft). Together they change the comedy by being a black and white comedy. The boy, reared in virtuous paths by his grandfather and his parents, is left in the care of relatives while his family attends a funeral out of town. McQueen instructs the boy in

The flavor of the film is Americana in the Twain tradition. The screenplay captures the charm of a comparatively innocent and carefree age (the horserace is particularly well handled). But the film parts company with Twain with the introduction of sex, the heroine being a prostitute in a Memphis brothel.

Sharon Farrell is a lady of the evening in the traditional mold — full of heart McQueen meets the man handling his part with vigor and a nice sense of comedy. The rest of the cast is also highly adequate.

GARDEN
Patruy Swope (starts this Friday) is a satire that drew crowds in New York City when it opened last August. It has a zany, episodic plot centering upon a power shift from white to black in a large city. The director, Robert Downey, attacks all the hang-ups of both black and white America.

The shift is entirely accidental. Board members, casting votes for a new president, unwittingly write in the name of the man they think least likely to receive a vote from any one else. Thus, Patruy Swope, a black, becomes head of the "Trust & Soul Agency." His brothers and sisters wear African dhotis, grey flannels, cowboy and Arab dress. The ads they turn out spoof our tenderest misconceptions. Such as the one with the couple who met at a Yale-Harvard game, praising the wonders of Face-Off Pimple Cream. The director Robert Downey, attacks all the hang-ups of both black and white America. THE BEST NUMBER to call for classified advertising is 924-2206.

It's New To Us

ing advanced printmaking. And for those who want to explore the wonderful things that can be done with simply paper, wood and cloth, the PAA has a pioneers' class for all ages on Monday evenings.

The Princeton Adult School each semester offers hobbyists an outing. This term it's the art of growing the small ornamental trees known as Bonsai. There's a workshop in woven rug and tapestry techniques, such as you find in the Oriental and Scandinavian rugs, and rather advanced tapestry weaves made on looms.

The Adult School also has a beginners' course in pottery-making, and an intermediate sewing group.

For those interested in antique restoration, Karl Gussner holds classes in his shop. And if you want to work on your own, there are kits at The Game Room to start you off on birdhouses, tie racks, bookends, cheese trays and bureau boxes.

In the Nassau Hobby Shop are beautifully sculptured lead figures of soldiers of the historic armies, ready for skillful painting and use in some unusual decorative item; and rockets to fly up at the Princeton Hospital fairground, and kits for mosaics, and beginners' leatherwork.

Our leisure time is going to be more plentiful and more interesting.

How Candidates Will Vote on School Budget

Seven of the nine candidates for the Princeton Regional School Board announced this week that they will vote "Yes" for the school budget. The other two are undecided. No candidate said he would vote against it. The tally:

YES — Borough:

Mrs. J. Stuart Hauser: "I will vote for the budget. It is a shame when budgets are defeated. This year, to a teachers' salary negotiations create a budget situation we cannot change."

Dr. Henry Pawcser: "I will vote yes — it's a very sensible budget, with only the necessary increases due to teachers' salaries."

Mrs. Robert Geddes: "I will vote yes. Most increases represent rising costs and not expanded services. The largest part is for salaries, and this is the way we can get and keep the best teachers for our system."

YES — Township — three-year:

Daniel Mager: "I intend to vote for the budget as proposed, provided that in its final form it isn't too far a field from the one published January 7. 73% of the budget is employees' salaries placed at a level necessary to maintain parity with competing school systems. Of the remaining 27%, 22% is essentially fixed-cost items. The small remainder is, to date, not entirely explained."

Township — two-year:

Burnett Sams: "I shall vote to pass the budget. It is a realistic balancing of the necessity to maintain the quality of education and the need to carefully limit spending. Salary increases are necessary to restore Princeton's competitive position for attracting the best new teachers."

Mrs. Loren Johnston: "I will vote yes. Salary increases are essential to retain and attract creative professionals. But I would like a more detailed breakdown of alternatives: why was one thing chosen and another rejected, for example? I don't like to vote on a package deal, and more information would have been helpful."

Philip Grubbs: "Yes, I will vote for the budget; defeating it would serve no purpose. We must raise salaries, and if the budget is defeated and is turned over to municipal authorities or to the state, there is simply no room to decrease it any more."

UNDECIDED — Borough:

Mrs. Albert Bids: "I am undecided because I have not yet heard the budget discussed in detail. Matters such as administrative increases or increase in custodial contracts concern me."

Township — three-year:

Robert Bierman: "I have not yet decided. We don't yet know how much teacher salary increases will be. The board so far hasn't come out with detailed information on, for example, how many people on the administrative staff have been receiving how much money."

Mini-Bikes, Go-Carts Illegal on Public Property

It is illegal to ride a mini-bike or go-cart in New Jersey, except on your own property or property on which you have obtained permission to do so. Trouble is, kids never obtain permission, according to Township juvenile officer Anthony Pinelli, who offers the above reminder.

"We've been plagued with them the last couple of years," Pinelli said, observing that Christmas presents have apparently swelled the number. He noted that the Township has been the scene of injuries both to youthful riders and pedestrians.

The state views them as unregistered vehicles and will not pass them. Consequently, they are illegal on any street, sidewalk, public parking lot and such. Pinelli warns that a juvenile rider caught using a public thoroughfare is subject to juvenile proceedings.

"Parents are remiss, too," he said. "They know they are illegal yet they allow their children to operate them."

However, Dr. Cruickshank took issue with Dr. Dodson
this week:

"I wish to give my own statements on policy and position and not be branded by what others think is my position," he stated.

"I consider myself a middle-of-the-road candidate. I would seek to reduce the rapidly approaching cost of public education, but would not in any way jeopardize the quality of that education.

"I am in favor of change,
not for the sake of changing alone, but to meet obvious needs to make significant improvements. I would be critical of all programs and policies
but only in an effort to be convinced that the programs and policies were the best available under the circumstances."

ZONERS SAY YES
To Princeton Inn Conversion
Princeton University cleared one more hurdle Monday night when the Borough zoning board agreed to grant the University two conditional use permits to convert the Inn into a dormitory for 330 students.
In addition to including all the necessary bulk variances and minor adjustments, the board tackled on two conditions. One, that a 12-foot strip along the Inn side of Alexander Street be dedicated to the borough in the event of the future widening of Alexander. Township zoners had placed a similar condition upon the University.

Two people actually making family dwelling on the north side of the Inn be preserved as a two-family home. The building, currently housing Inn employees, is 22 feet from the home of H. Keaton Twitshell, at Alexander.

Mr. Twitshell was the only Borough resident to speak at the meeting. He asked that the board consider continuing the dwelling as a family use rather than a dormitory. The University had included the some and the employees' dormitory as well as the Inn in its application.

Cut in Half by Zone Line.
The university needed two use variances because the main dormitory section of the Inn located in the Borough is, illogically, bisected by a zoning line separating an R3 zone from a neighborhood business district. A dormitory is a permitted use in both zones.

The board also bent concerning parking. The University had to provide 40 spaces in the borough, which it could,
but it asked for a variance from the requirement that they be provided on the same lot or within 400 feet. "We can provide the spaces easily enough," the University told the board, "but we want the flexibility to provide them within our peripheral parking scheme." The latter is a plan whereby the University requires its students and employees to walk to lots ringing the campus rather than ologizing up its center.

Midway in the three and one-half hour long complex presentation by Frank Reich,
attorney for the University,

board member Roger Mc-Donough commented: "A great and unique facility is going to be lost to the Princeton community."
"I don't think everyone is terribly happy about the situation," Mr. Ritchie replied.

Counterbalancing the loss to the community, however, was the urgent need, in the opinion of university officials, to admit coeds — a planned 650 by 1973. Jon D. Hafter,
Director of Physical planning, testified that studies indicated that the University could anticipate a drop in enrollment and a drop in the quality of students if it did not expand coeducationally. "Especially a drop in applications," he added. Because of the construction lag involved in building a new dormitory, the university could not expect to provide new student housing before 1973, he said.

The University plans to house 330 students in the Inn, the main portion of which was built in 1924. About 200 would reside in the borough portion of the Inn. The ratio of women to men in the Inn, planned by the University, is roughly two to one.

NEW PRINCIPAL IN JULY
Instead of Feb. 1, Riverside School's new principal will take over her new job July 1, instead of this February 1, as originally planned.

Mrs. Dorotha Lummis has agreed to continue as acting principal of Riverside through the rest of the school year,
said Superintendent Philip E.
McPherson, in announcing the shift in plans.

Mrs. Edith Scott, the new principal, asked the Board of Education to postpone her starting date for personal and professional reasons and the Board agreed, Dr. McPherson said.
She will move to Princeton within the next few weeks. Before she actually becomes a paid member of the school staff, she will spend one day

a week in Princeton in connection with the completion of her doctoral studies, becoming involved in curriculum activities in the Princeton schools, and getting acquainted with the Princeton system. Riverside in particular, the superintendent said.

HOUSING PLANNED
For Seminary Faculty. A wooded cluster comprising 34 homes will be developed over the next ten years on Mt. Lucas Road for senior faculty at Princeton Theological Seminary.

The project, described in detail this week, will be up for public hearing before the new Regional Planning Board on Tuesday, February 3 at 8 p.m. in Borough Hall.

The "Habada Housing Tract," as it will be called, consists of 55 acres given to the Seminary in 1965 by William Habada of Mt. Lucas Road.

Development will follow the cluster zoning ordinance of Princeton Township, which allows a developer to group the houses so that wooded tracts or fields can be left open for passive recreation like bird-watching, or active recreation
like playing tennis.

The "Habada Tract" lies in the Township's one and one-half acre zone. Each house will have slightly over half an acre, leaving about 25 acres of rocky, wooded terrain, plus a center common of relatively flat open space.

In addition, Michael Erdman
and Alexander Ewing, architects who developed the acreage, have planned an 80-foot subway from Mt. Lucas Road.
Houses will front on an inner road which will wind through the tract, so that backlanddepth will make the 80 foot Mt.

From: THE PRINCETON REGIONAL BOARD OF EDUCATION

This is the third of three budget statements to appear in these pages before the Public Hearing on January 20, 1970

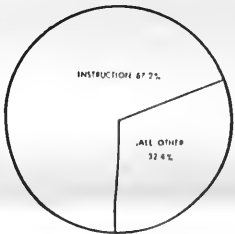

Copies of all three statements are available at each building of the Princeton Regional Schools.

EXPENDITURES ★★★

The following charts show the three major types of school expenses of the total budget.

Annual expenses to operate a school system generally fall into three major categories. In 1970-71 salaries are expected to require $6,347,000; materials and contracted services, will cost $1,743,300; and debt service repayments plus classroom rentals will need $634,400

Within the total expenditures and the normal accounting categories, the instruction account contains $4,721,000 of the total budget. All other categories contain the balance of $1,701,500

Each chart above represents 100% expenditure or $7,034,500

Lucas setback even deeper. One access to the homes will be from Mt. Lucas and one from the Township's proposed "A" road.

The Seminary will develop the parcel in much the same way that Princeton University developed its "Grey Farm" homes. A faculty member will buy a lot, then retain his own architect and contractor to build a house.

He will live in the house after he retires, if he wishes, and his wife will continue to live on the property if she survives her husband.

William F. Lawder, treasurer of the Seminary, said this week that the Seminary hopes to start building this summer.

CAR OVERTURNS

On Mercer Road, A small foreign car driven by Ronald S. Hemmel, 26, of Milwaukee, overturned on Mercer Road Sunday near Gallup Road.

Mr. Hemmel was treated at the scene for a laceration of the forehead but refused further medical aid.

He told police he lost control of his car on a patch of packed snow and ice and started to skid to the left. To avoid a car coming in the opposite direction, he swerved to the right. His car then hit a mailbox and

1,000,000 Bottle Caps?

They've only got 60,000 at Littlebrook School, but that's a start, anyway.

Miss Mary Jane Schomp, math teacher at Littlebrook, wanted to dramatize the concept of "one million" to her fourth fifth grade math students and somebody hit on the idea of bottle caps.

It was like hitting the jack-pot. One student sent a letter to TOWN TOPICS and received thousands of caps in reply; another used a magnet to extract caps from a soft-drink machine; another got a bottling company in Trenton to contribute. Party left over, door-to-door requests, posters all over Littlebrook.

And letters to family and friends abroad. Bottle caps rolled in from Israel, Portugal, the British Isles, South American countries, the West Indies, Morocco, Germany, Switzerland.

Now — what to do with them? A mosaic mural is apparently the most likely possibility.

some fencing, rolled over once and came to rest against a tree.

Mr. Mario Musso of the Township ticketed him for careless driving. The accident occurred at 1 p.m.

Ronald Jonash, 23, Hollow Road, Skillman, was injured Thursday evening when the car in which he was riding went out of control on the Great Road near Stuart Road. He received 10 sutures at Princeton Hospital to close a laceration of the right shoulder.

The driver, Erwin Keller, 33, of Hollow Road, told police he lost control while rounding a curve on the ice and snow covered road. The entire undercarriage of his small car was damaged.

Robert L. Curtis, 41, of Kendall Park, was treated at Princeton Hospital for two fractured ribs, after his car was involved in a collision Thursday in the Princeton Shopping Center lot.

The second driver, Susan D. Utan, 35, of Trenton, said that she was coming around Bamberger's when the Curtis car rolled out from the end of a line of parked cars into her path. Both cars skidded on the ice and were unable to avoid a collision, police said.

Truck Hits Bridge. Early Friday morning at 3 a.m., Cliff T. Elsey, 39, of Philadelphia, driving a tractor trailer, skidded as he approached the South Harrison Street bridge.

He told police he applied his brakes when he met a car at the mouth of the bridge coming the other way. The side of his truck struck the bridge. He swerved to the left and then back to the right, striking the bridge a second time with the front of his truck, which had to be towed away.

Earlier in the week, a van truck driven by Vincent T. Punarist, 34, of Trenton, overturned on Route 266, 450 feet south of Cherry Valley Road. Mr. Punarist told P.U. David Cromwell that he hit an icy spot, causing him to skid across the opposite lane where he hit a snow bank and turned over. He escaped injury.

YOUTH IS CHARGED
With Unlawful Gun Possession, Frederick Skipworth, 19, 19 Lytle Street, has been charged by Borough police with unlawful possession of a firearm. He has also been charged by Lawrence Township.

TAXES ★★★

The 1970 calendar year tax levy, to be determined in February of '70 is to be based on half of each off-school year budgets, the budgets for 1969-70 (current) and 1970-71 (projected).

LEVY 1969-70 SCHOOL YEAR		LEVY 1970-71 SCHOOL YEAR

police with breaking and entering and larceny.

After a preliminary hearing before Borough Judge Theo Jure T. Jure, Jr. was released in $1,000 bail. He then served with a detain-er by Lawrence police, who came and picked him up.

Armed with a warrant, Lt. Michael Corneale, Sgt. Ralph P. Anthony and Detective Thomas Vanstone visited Skipworth's house last Wednesday. Police were prepared to search the premises but did not have to when Skiptworth handed over a .32 caliber, black handed revolver and case which had at long been stolen from a private home in Lawrence Township.

The pistol was identified by Lawrence Township police as the one that had been stolen in their community, Borough police said. The latter acted on information supplied to them by a companion of Skiptworth's.

FIRE DESTROYS CAR

In Princeton Inn Lot. Town ship police are continuing their investigation into a fire which destroyed a car parked in the inn's lot next to the employee's dormitory of the Princeton Inn.

The blaze, reported at 2:12 Monday morning by a neighbor looking down the street, totally destroyed a 1964 Corvair owned by Maria Okras of Trenton, employed as a waitress at the Inn. A still alarm was sounded and three men were dispatched to put out the fire.

Sgt. Anthony Nial is continuing the investigation. Police termed the origin of the fire suspicious.

Storage Shed Levelled. A general alarm was sounded at 3:54 last Wednesday afternoon for a fire on Route 206. Police said a small storage shed behind the Bababian and Sun rug store, 100 Cherry Valley Road, was destroyed.

DR. FILE ENTERS RACE
For Lawrence School Board.
Dr. Joseph File, a resident of Milbrook Lane, Lawrence Township, has joined the race for a seat on the Lawrence Township Board of Education.

Pointing to 10 years of community interest, especially in the field of science education, Dr. File this week outlined a nine-point program for evaluating and improving public school services in the township.

Among other items, he called for an impartial evaluation of the current instructional program, an examination of "educational accountability," or the return per dollar, and a stabilization of the teaching staff. This would include hiring fewer transient teachers and more permanent residents, he said, in order to develop a "highly professional atmosphere" to encourage the present faculty and attract highly qualified teachers in the future.

Dr. File also said he would seek a study of drug effects here, start a drug education program in the schools and institute a "firm policy" for dealing with habitual offenders and pushers.

He also called for expansion of the present Cooperative Industrial Education program, encouragement of teacher supervised extra-curricular activity, and "broader representation" on the school board.

Civil Rights Meeting Set

Evening and morning classes will be given in basic weaving by Mrs. Robinson Hyde of Montgomery Avenue, who should be contacted in advance. Both classes start this week.

Beginning March 17 Fred Ward will lead a bird-watching group from 8 to 10 on Tuesday mornings. All activities except the art classes will meet at the Rocky Hill Community Center on Washington Street, and registration is open during the first and second class meetings. Further information is available from Mrs. Lynn Mann on Washington Street, at 520-1410.

PROF. DORE TO TEACH
 Adult School English Course. Among the many and varied courses offered by the Adult School in its winter term, beginning Thursday, January 28, is an old favorite of the students: a one-hour course given by Prof. Erling Dorf, "Geology for Beginners."

The school will run for 10 consecutive weeks ending April 2. Registration in person will be held next week. For a complete list of courses see page 22. Prof. Dorf's course will be an introduction to geologic processes which have produced major physical features of the Earth: glaciers, oceans and lakes, origin of rocks and minerals, land movements, earthquakes, mountain-building and other volcanic phenomena.

A new 8 p.m. hour class will be a seminar on the Short Stories of Ernest Hemingway, which will be given by Princeton author George V. Packard, head of the Princeton Day School English Department. It will be an examination of the texts of Hemingway to explore the development of his skills and with its analysis of method and technique it should prove of great interest to writers as well as those who are interested in the general body of Hemingway's work.
 Mr. Packard's book "That Grail Song, Sam, One More Time" was well received when published last fall. A graduate of Bowdoin College, he received his M.A. from Columbia and has had his work published in Cavalier, Redbook and Sports Illustrated.

Rockets or Remodeling. In the 9 p.m. one-hour slot are two new offerings that should appeal to many. Achievements in Space Astronomy given by Terry Matlack of the University will be a discussion of significant advances in rocket and balloon astronomy, from gamma rays and X-ray research to infrared and radio observations. These data will be analyzed with particular emphasis on their contributions in the fields of stellar and galactic structure and evolution.

Those contemplating change

ing the home in which they live will be interested in one called House Remodeling to be given by Mrs. Elizabeth Moynihan a member of the American Institute of Architects. It will cover the steps a homeowner should take when adding to or altering his house: the budget, analysis of existing house, when to alter, add, or both, illustrations and a description of the building process from site work through finishes, stressing use of materials.

A series of four courses for the High School Equivalency Certificate will be offered for those who have not graduated from an approved high school. These courses are designed so that with proper counselling by George Petrillo of the Princeton High School students will be prepared to take the General Educational Development tests.

They are given in English, Mathematics, Social Studies and Natural sciences. Each class is of 1½ hour duration: 7:00 - 8:30 and 8:30 - 10:00 P.M. Then once again there will be offered a special job training course of 2 hour length. A Boiler Operation course which will provide the necessary instruction to prepare the individual for a New Jersey State Fireman's License in heating and steam plant operation.

Sports In Princeton
The Brain goalie, created what proved to be the final dead lock at 9:05.

Through the last half of the third period and all of a 10 minute sudden death overtime the teams battled without breaking the tie. Both came close to winning, Tilligman stopping a tough, angled shot at the last second and Brown breaking up a 2 on 1 threat just as Princeton pored close to its cage.

As usual, the Tigers were out of it 48 to 34—but they had kept Brown from taking home two points for the first time since 1967. In addition to Schorn, senior Gordon Rodgers got two goals, the other going to Bert Meers, Jim Tilligman and Roger Kyle.

Earlier in the game, the Orange and Black scored first at 1:15. P.J. at Troy had trailed, 3-2, going into the third period. When the home team took the lead, the final bell with a minute to go, Coach Bill Quackenbush pulled his goalie to give Princeton a 6-3 advantage in skaters.

The move paid off with exactly one second left, sophomore John Heppner lifting the puck over a prostrate goalie to cap a prolonged attack. Seven minutes into the overtime period, Heppner provided the margin of victory, faking the goalie and shooting right by him.

To make the first triumph even sweeter, the Tigers were a man short when they scored the winning goal. Exhorts have overtaken the Tigers, and they will be battling Sunday, January 24, when Dartmouth plays here. While Cornell and Harvard are obviously out of reach, and very probably Brown, the rest of the league now appears no stronger than the improving Tigers, which means that a fourth place finish is possible.

PDS SKEWER SHOUTOUT
By Princeton Freshmen. It's not often you can lose a big key game 8-0 and still gain a measure of satisfaction from the contest, but the Princeton Day School hockey team has nothing to be ashamed of after its one-sided loss to the Princeton Freshmen Monday afternoon on Baker Park.

Skating against the best freshman team the Tigers have had in years, unbeaten at this point, the Blue and White never let up against a bigger and stronger opponent. Although shutout for the first time this year, the Panthers' offense applied pressure continually on the Tiger goalie, and just missed scoring on several occasions.

The freshmen scored their first goal about eight minutes into the first period and added another two minutes later. Three goals in each of the last two periods completed the scoring. Chris Reeve was in the PDS nets for two periods, and Tom O'Connor for the third.

Now 51 on the season, PDS will meet Princeton High School Friday afternoon at PHS. The Panthers have never lost to the Little Tigers.

The Panthers found the going considerably easier again at both Cranford and Lawrenceville, building up solid leads in the first period and adding to the score thereafter.

Saturday night against the Larries, the Blue and White got goals from all players in a generally good team effort, according to coach Harry Ruff. Robbie Holt, the only player to score twice, tallied first, assisted by Jim Rodgers. Soon after, Jim Rodgers skated in on a solo effort and put the Panthers ahead 2-0. A hotshot shot by Buzz Woodworth closed out the first period.

In a generally lackluster second stanza, Holt accounted for the only scoring with an assist from Art Mittnacht. Adding icing to the cake in the third period were Sam Rodgers, Lauren York and, and Devin Young, assisted by Jim Rodgers. PHS had 40 shots on goal, while Tom O'Connor, registering his fourth straight shutout, turned back 18 from Lawrenceville.

Jim Rodgers led the Panthers' scoring against Cranford, running up with four goals. First Schuler added two goals and an assist and Sam Rodgers had three assists. Reeve Holt had the final goal.

CUSHMAN SCORES NEAR PIN: John Cushman, Princeton High School 136-pound wrestler, has Lawrence High School's Dan Goff in a near-pin. He failed to get the fall but won narrowly, 12-0.

Randall Miller termed the game a bit ragged; it was the Panthers' last after the Christmas Holidays. Although in control of the puck most of PHS nonetheless kept up steady pressure through most of the game, bring 35 shots at the Cranford goalie. Tom O'Connor had to make only 10 saves.

LAWRENCE ROUTED
By PHS Wrestlers. At the start of the season, Princeton High School wrestling coach Tom Murray predicted that his squad would make more than hold its own against Mercer County schools.

Thursday, the PHS matmen continued to make Murray an odd product as they rolled over visiting Lawrence High School, 40-5. In the John Witherspoon School gym. It was the Little Tigers' third straight win and third in five matches.

Next, PHS will tangle with two Princeton area prep schools. It will meet Lawrenceville Saturday at 2:30 and Han next Wednesday, the 21st, at 3:30. Both matches are a way.

In addition, the team was scheduled to oppose Trenton this Wednesday evening at 8 at Trenton.

Three Quick Pins. Against Lawrence, PHS recorded three quick pins. Mark Kahn, 96-pounder, pinned his man in 1:15; Bobby Arcaro, 141-pounder, dispatched his opponent in 56; and heavyweight Lou John Rossi, the team's only undefeated grappler, flattened his man in 1:32. Maury Peabody, 157-pound entrant for PHS, had the easiest time collecting five points when Lawrence forfeited the match. Recording decisions for the Blue and White were Dave MacDonald, 6-0; Mark Evans, 5-3; John Cushman, 12-0; Larry Ritchey, 4-0; John Hodges, 9-6; and Lawrence Parker, 10-4.

Hodges, filling in for Chris Mislow in the 168-pound bracket, garnered three takedowns to win his match.

The losers packed up their five points when Lee Costa, 130-pounder for PHS, lost, 9-6, and Tom Evans, 123-pounder, —Continued on Next Page

 was held to a 2-3 tie.
 In a jayvee match, PHIS defeated Lawrence, 48-19. Lawrence forfeited six bouts.

PHIS UPSETS STEINERT
 For 6-3 Biceps
 The defense was very aggressive. We caught them on that; that's our bread and butter."
 The defense on which PHIS coach Larry Ivan commented, plus a great job of rebounding, 24 to just 11 for Steinert, enabled PHIS to surprise the visiting Spartans Friday night, 36-32. It was Steinert's 5th straight loss in a row and Princeton's third straight win. PHIS is now 6-3.

It was a good week for coach Larry Ivan's Little Tigers. The Steinert victory, coupled with its surprisingly easy 60-40 win over Lawrence three days earlier, gave PHIS a good chance of making the post-season state tourney. It also brought recognition. PHIS was listed 13th among the top 15 teams in the Delaware Valley area, marking the first time it has appeared on such list in Ivan's three-year tenure.

"We're shooting for the state tournament. That's our main goal, and the way we're going now, we're really starting to see it," Ivan commented.

Must Win 60 Percent. It is harder to qualify for the tourney this year. Previously, a team had to have won 50 percent of its games by the cutoff date; this year, NJSLAA officials have increased that to 60 percent.

This means, as far as Princeton is concerned, it must win nine of the 15 games it will have played by January 30, the cutoff date.

Morrisville Next. Ivan's club will travel to Morrisville High School in Pennsylvania, Thursday evening for an 8 p.m. contest. Tuesday afternoon, for its second and last afternoon game of the season, PHIS will entertain Somerville.

Ivan reported that Morrisville is presently 3-5, having lost "a couple of close ball games." Somerville, he believed, was 4-5. Could be, if the PHIS defense continues to improve with each game as Ivan claims it is, that the Little Tigers could win both of these. The following schedule will play Hamilton, 6-3 now, and Madison Township.

Not as Close as Score. The game with Steinert was not as close as the score indicated. With three minutes to go, PHIS had a 34-23 lead.

Paul Riddell was the difference. The big PHIS center scored 20 points — high for both sides by eight points — despite the fact that two minutes into the second period he had poked up his fourth foul. "We decided to go with him. We didn't want to lose our tempo or mobility," said Ivan. Riddell was still playing at the final buzzer.

PHIS did it with only five players. Jeff Haring scored nine points, Bob Soreney, four and Tim Taggart three. Although he was blanked from the line, Ivan cited the defensive play of John Schmidt and Haring and Riddell.

Actually, PHIS won it from the foul line where it had been notoriously weak. Against Steinert it converted 12 of 21 attemps to give 16-3 a 12 to 8 margin from the free throw line.

PHIS Sets Tempo. "We felt very confident," said Ivan later. "We had scouted them three times and found they liked to set the tempo of the game. They never came out of their standard 32."

"Instead of their setting the tempo, we decided to do it. It worked out. At one point in the final period, PHIS controlled the ball for three minutes. The PHIS defense was really something to see. Extremely flexible, it shifts back and forth between a man to man and zone depending on the position of the ball. It is also complicated to learn but Ivan feels that his players are becoming more adept and confident with it as the season progresses.

Ivan also reported he is grateful for the team support. "We're getting big crowds at home. A lot of parents are coming out. They're becoming our sixth player," he said. "The ball players appreciate it and I know I certainly do." Maybe — just maybe — Steinert was the first ray of light at the end of a long, long tunnel.

HOMER OPENER FRIDAY
 For PDS Basketball Team
 Opportunities of playing against a team of equal ability may not come often for the Princeton Day School basketball team this winter, as the Panthers face a rugged schedule with a largely inexperienced squad.

In the home opener, Friday, at 3 p.m. PDS should find its opponent, Academy of the Holy Church, a fairly even match. The game should give the Blue and White a chance for a win in a schedule that may not yield many more.

This Wednesday, the Blue and White was scheduled to go against a strong Hun five, with the result likely to duplicate that of the Germantown Friends contest. Against Germantown last Friday, the Panthers were up against a quintet with four veteran starters and an unbeaten record. The first quarter pretty much told the story with the winners jumping off to a 2-8 lead. At the half it was 42-20, with a 73-38 final recorded.

Germantown was able to get off 82 shots, while PDS had only 52 attempts, while suffering 36 turnovers. Carl Rosenburg was high man for the losers with 12 points.

The triumph was Germantown's fifth; it was the Panthers' first contest, after last Wednesday's snow forced the game against Mostertown to be put off. A second date has not been worked out.

Sports In Princeton

IT WAS ALL MINI-SIZE
As Tigers Beat Penn State
 Before the smallest crowd in Jadwin Gym's short history Tuesday night, Penn State made the smallest score and had a most infinitesimal shooting percentage anyone could remember. A scant 2,500 spectators were on hand as the visitors had to struggle to make 38 points, rank just 21% of their shots and failed to put any of their nine players in double figures.

Princeton, meanwhile, managed to play its normal game, which is not always easy in the face of unbelievably weak opposition. The Tigers, whose bench was cheered long after the second half was over, threw in 77 points and shot a fine 53% despite the limited action seen by their face starters.

The Nittany Lions, whose claim to being no. 1 in foot ball is fairly substantial, aren't even 101 among major colleges in basketball. One-time Fordham star Johnny Bach is trying to bring them back to the respectability they once knew, but he shuffles his personnel in and out so frequently they really may get to know each other on the bench.

State actually held leads of a point or two in the very early going, but after drawing even at 8 a.m. with 6:30 gone, Princeton had doubled the visitors' output (22-11) not much more than midway through the first half, and the ball game was about over. The half-time score was 32-11, and despite the reserve lineup State faced most of the rest of the way, it could add only 17 more points. In the last 20 minutes, the losers' shooting percentage of 18 was six degrees colder

PISIS Step Nearer Playoffs

Hopes for a berth in the postseason state tournament drew a step nearer for the Princeton High School basketball team Tuesday as it trounced winless Montgomery, 56 to 21.

The victory raised the Little Tigers' record to 7-3 putting them well above the 50% mark required for entry in the championship balloting. Paul Riddell's 13 points made him the team's top player on either team to reach double figures, as Coach Larry Riddell's 12 members of his squad.

Once again, the PISIS defense played a major share in the outcome, the losers never making more than eight points in a single quarter. At half-time, the score was 32-11 and no contest.

than the weather.
 Jeff Petrie with 22 and John Hirtles with 17 played well under 30 minutes apiece but still scored more points between them than the visitors managed. There's a return match on the schedule next week, but it's not known just yet well that it will be played at University Park, Pa.

PISIS SKATERS SPLIT

Oppose PIS Friday, Dan McGuire, first-year coach of the Princeton High School hockey team, has no illusions about Friday's meeting with rival Princeton Day School.

"They'll probably be out of our skins with 17 minutes left," he said. "Anyone who can shut out Lawrenceville, 7-0, must have some thing." The two schools will square off for the first time this season at 4 at the PDS rink.

PDS will enter the contest with a 3-1 record. It rolled over its first live opponents, blanking four in the process, before it ran a foul of a potent Princeton University freshman team Monday night. The freshmen won that one, 8-0.
 PIS, in turn, has a 2-2 record and after McGuire's tutelage, the Little Tigers have managed to hold their own, but they cannot come anywhere near matching the superior depth of the Panthers, who will be a heavy favorite.

PISIS has split the two games it has played since the holidays, but by defeating Hudson School, 6-2, at the PDS rink Monday night and losing by the same score Thursday to Westmont.

Against Hun, PISIS was forced to go with a squad decimated by McGuire as "shut out" but it still managed to get the job done. Sidelined by a back injury, Phil Matthews, star, did not play at all, and John Weber, another front-line player, saw limited action. Weber is bolstered by a severe hamstring pull.

It was 2-0 at the end of the first period and 3-1 at the end of the second. John Holden scored two goals for PISIS. Adding single tallies were the Fitzpatrick brothers, Hugh and Allen; Steve Sanford and Weber. Mike Tomlinson did an excellent job in the nets for PISIS, before giving away in the final minutes to Dave Donahue to a charge of careless driving and was fined $20.

 In other cases, Judge Burton Peskin fined Peter L. Fiumer, 33, 111 Patton Ave., $50 for leaving the scene of an accident; Maryellen L. ## EDUCATION TO RISE

At Princeton University, for the third straight year, Princeton University has raised its tuition rate. In addition, room and board costs are going up for the 1970-71 academic year. President Robert F. Goheen reacted to the University community last week.

The step was taken "with the greatest reluctance," Dr. Goheen said, and after careful consideration by the Trustees' Committee on Finance and the University's Community Council.

Tuition will jump from $2350 to $2500, room rental from $170 to $330, and meals will cost about $30 to $40 more a year, depending on where a student eats. Thus college next year will cost about $270 more than it does this year.

The rise parallels a national trend: each year since World War II, the average cost of educational services at private universities has risen 75% according to the University's Provost William G. Bowen.

who heads the Priorities Committee.

No students will be forced to leave school under the increased tuition. Members of the student body who demonstrate need will be provided additional support through the Bureau of Student Aid, according to the President. He added that the school has always kept tuition charges at the lowest practicable figure, and termed the new increase "absolutely essential."

COMMITTEE APPOINTED

For Hospital Trustee Nomination, Prof. John C. Whitwell, Hospital Treasurer, has been appointed chairman of a committee to select five hospital corporation members for nomination to the organization's 17-member board of trustees.

Serving with Prof. Whitwell will be Richard W. Baker Jr., also on the hospital's board, and Oliver V. Houghton, Mrs. Ralph J. Sharp, and Ole E. Vivian Jr., representing the community at large.

In accordance with the by-laws, names of additional candidates for election as Hospital Trustees will be selected by the nominating committee until Monday, February 9. Nominees must be corporate members, and the nomination must be signed by at least five members. Trustees serve for three years and are limited to three consecutive terms. Trustees, with terms expiring next June, are James Carey, Samuel Frutkinham, Dr. Robert S. Garher, Ralph S. Mason and Frank E. Taplin.

Obituaries

Donald Strachan, 60, of Rose Dale Lane, died January 13 in Princeton Hospital following a brief illness. He was a three-time winner of the U.S. National squash championship covering a span of 18 years — from 1936, then in 1939 and again in 1940.

Born in Mexico City, Mr. Strachan graduated from Princeton University with the Class of 1931. For 20 years he was associated with the Lee Tire & Rubber Co. in Conshohocken, Pa., following three years with the Goodall Rubber Co. of Trenton. He retired in 1955.

Mr. Strachan had lived in Princeton since 1946. He was a member of Trinity Episcopal Church and of the Bodens Brook Country Club.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ella Strachan; two daughters, Mrs. Philip Wickenden of London, and Mrs. Warren of Princeton; and four grandchildren.

The service will be held Friday at 2 at Trinity Episcopal Church. The Father Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

William J. Willis, a lifelong resident of Princeton, died January 18 at his home, 186 Spruce Circle.

He retired in 1950 as an auto mechanic. He was a member of Princeton Country Company No. 1 and the Ex-empt Firemen's Association.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Alice M. Willis; two sons, Thomas W. of Levittown, Pa., and Harvey of Baltimore, a daughter, Mrs. Charles Kay of Princeton, and a grandson, Jeffrey, both of Princeton.

A graveside service was held in Princeton Cemetery, the Rev. E. Ruggie, vicar of Trinity Episcopal Church officiating.

John P. Golden, 48, died January 10 at his home, 233 Washington Road, Penn Neck, a suburb of Princeton. Mr. Golden lived in Penn Neck for the past 16 years. He was an officer in the Bricklayers and Plasterers and Masons Local 30. Interment was in the parish cemetery under direction of the Kimble Funeral Home. Memorial gifts may be sent to the Princeton First Aid and Rescue Squad or to the Mercer County Heart Association.

Mrs. Minnie Schaafsma, 91 of 194 Mill Road, Princeton, died January 10. She had operated a dairy farm with her late husband, Edwin Schaafsma.

Correction
There was an error of omission in last week's story on the Federal Curbies' (Curbies' School, $32,000). It was stated that "the Federal Curbies' his probably aimed out Wednesday afternoon prospects for disadvantaged children (may for better lessons, for example)." The lessons referred to are those given at the Princeton Ballet School. Last year the Society conducted classes for approximately 100 children in the Wednesday afternoon program from January to May and is continuing these classes this year. The program for the program was and is borne entirely by the Society, which as a non-profit organization receives no contributions from its supporters for such purposes.

Mayor John Wallace of the township, Frank Cooper, Manager of General Services, American Cyanamid Agricultural Division; and Dr. John Dismukes, Research Leader of ICA Laboratories.

The forum is part of a week-long celebration of the founding of the Jaycees 50 years ago. The hour-long program will be followed by a question and answer period.

LANGUAGE CLASS SET
In Chinese, for Children, The Princeton University Chinese

language class for children. The preferred age group is from five to 12 years old.

The class will be divided into two sections, one section for those children who can speak Mandarin and one section for those who cannot speak Mandarin. For the first section the emphasis will be mainly on character recognition and writing. For the second section, for the beginning, will concentrate on teaching Mandarin speaking abilities.

The class is scheduled to begin on Saturday, Feb. 7, from 10 o'clock in the morning to noon, and will be held every Saturday thereafter. The first meeting will be held at Jones Hall, Princeton University.

The teachers for the language class are Mrs. Langlois and Mrs. Deborah Tien. Mrs. Langlois, who came to this country last September, had previous experience in teaching Chinese to non-Mandarin speaking students in Taiwan. Her husband is at present a graduate student in the department of East Asian Studies at Princeton University.

For registration and other information please call Mrs. Patsy Linn, 923-2191.

YOGA CLASS OFFERED
At Union Church, Techniques of modern dance, yoga and mime will be combined in a new course to be offered for the first time in Princeton at the Union Church starting Monday, January 26. The course will consist of basic exercises of yoga, modern dance movement, the various postures, breathing and relaxation exercises of yoga, and the development of body articulation based on mime technique. The exploration of the modern dance technique of these three disciplines will give the beginning student the opportunity to develop his own capacity for self-expression through movement.

Registration for the class, to be conducted by Judith Nielsen and Patricia Cline, is now being accepted. Mrs. Nielsen studied modern dance under the direction of Martha Graham, mime with Alvin Epstein and modern dance with the Neighborhood Playhouse for Theatre in New York City.
